

Clarendon Happenings

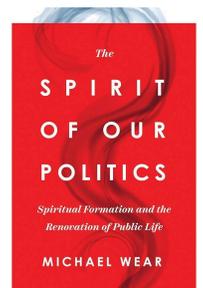

How We Learn to Be Brave - Mondays, 7:30PM, online

It's not too late to join us for this powerful book. We will be exploring chapter 3 next Monday. The book study is sponsored by the RMN Book Group. Please sign up to receive the Zoom link.

The Spirit of Our Politics

Pastor Hop will be facilitating a discussion group on this book on the Monday evenings beginning March 2nd at 7PM. If you would like to take part in this timely and important issue, please order the book now from Amazon or your favorite bookstore and begin reading. If you need help ordering, please contact Pastor Hop or our office.

Join Pastor Hop for an in-depth study of First Corinthians

Study

First Corinthians

Wednesdays online, 7 PM
Fridays in the church library, 10 AM

Register to join

Share

Join Jennifer London for Spiritual Conversations

This 6-week class is a time to explore and share your faith with others in a safe place.

Register to join

Tuesdays, 5-6:30PM in the church library beginning February 3rd

Next Sunday - Scout Sunday and Guest Preacher

Next week we celebrate scouting at our church. Clarendon UMC has had a long relationship with Scouting America's Pack and Troop 104 and with a local Girl Scout service unit leader's group. If you are a scout in any local troop, you are invited to wear your uniform next Sunday, February 8.

We will also welcome Rev. Lan Davis Wilson as our guest preacher. Rev. Wilson is the Director of Belonging and Advocacy for the Virginia Conference which supports churches and leaders in building beloved community.

Church office hours: Mon - Thurs, 9AM - 2PM 703-527-8574 or office@ClarendonUMC.org

Items for the Friday email/Clarendon Happenings are due by Noon on Wednesday.

Please submit all calendar and room requests to Fran Underwood at the office email.

Facebook - @ClarendonUMC

Instagram - @ClarendonUMCVA

Church Center app

www.clarendonumc.org

Youtube - Clarendon UMC

AmplifyMedia.com - Church code: WSRTFZ